me: dude
me: those rocket cars
me: that Ghaddafi designed me: those will be up for grabs soon
Caleb: Did they ever get built?
Caleb: And won't the new state just auction them off to cover the pension of the Amazonian Guard?
Caleb: pensions*
me: I think they're supposed to kill themselves out of love for Khaddafi and his rocket cars
me: I mean, that's what I would do Caleb: Wait.
Caleb: What's that word?
Caleb: Eye-ya-tallah?
Caleb: What is that?
